Dear

RE: Bruce Rock Centenary

The book, Bruce Rock: A Century of Memories, compiled to help celebrate Bruce Rock's Centenary, is finally finished. The work has been long but the result is a very readable book with 200 stories of families who have lived and worked in the Bruce Rock Shire over the 100 years. As a committee, we are very proud of the finished product. We have made every effort to keep the cost to a minimum and the book is offered for the very reasonable price of only $50.00 per copy.

The weekend of 13 and 14 April 2013 has been set aside for the celebration of our Centenary, and the plans for a number of highlights are well in hand. We are hoping that a big gathering of folk will come back to join us on the weekend. The book Bruce Rock: A Century of Memories will be officially launched that weekend but copies are available now from our Community Resource Centre. We are also happy to mail copies. An order form is attached in the hope that you'd like to purchase a copy (or two). Perhaps you know someone else who is interested in Bruce Rock and may like a copy. If so, please put them in touch with the Committee at the above address.

Yours sincerely
